Trustee Kurzawa wished everyone a great back to school. Hope everything goes smoothly.

Supervisor George Informed the board that we went out for bid on a new roof for the Landings Senior Housing. We received four bids. We chose a local company they were the lowest bid at ninety-four thousand. Some of the unites at the Landings are leaking. The last roof was installed in 2008.

Supervisor George complimented Highway Commissioner Bill Carlson on the great clean up job done after the storms. The Township had lots of trees that were down and so did Frankfort Square. The Mayor of Mokena also thanked the highway Department for the uses of their cleanup equipment. They mentioned how grateful they were at their town meeting.

We participated in Mokena's National Night Out on August 6th with games and prizes it was an enormous success.
