BOARD COMMENTS

Bill Carlson, Frankfort Township Highway Commissioner, reported that due to all the recent flooding in the township there were several culverts that collapsed. Under road and corner culverts were affected. Repairs have been completed on all of the collapsed culverts.

Joe Kral, Frankfort Township Assessor, noted that the Soft Appeal Process is in full swing. Fifteen township constituents were assisted with their appeal in the last two weeks. The last day for Soft Appeals will be around the beginning of June. The exact date will be determined by the county. The Assessors Office provides constituents with property sale prices for the last three years of houses with similar style, age, and size.

ADJOURNMENT
