PUBLIC COMMENTS –Jack Genis, a Frankfort Square Boy Scout, is working on a public safety badge. He came to tonight’s meeting to ask what was being done by the township to combat the increased burglaries all around the township. Supervisor Moustis explained that the township has no police force; however, they have been working with the Sheriff’s Deputies to alert the public to be more aware and proactive. These crimes are ones of opportunitywith unlocked garages, unlocked car doors. Trustee George said that it was important to remember to lock your homes and autos. Trustee Smith added that statistically 60%-75% of the neighborhood cars are unlocked. Trustee Griffin wished Jack good luck with his public safety project.
